Investor Class	$174	1.78%

How did the Fund perform last year?

Small-Cap ProFund (the "Fund") seeks investment results, before fees and expenses, that track the performance of the Russell 2000® Index (the "Index").

The Fund invests in financial instruments that ProFund Advisors believes, in combination, should track the performance of the Index.

For the year ended July 31, 2025, the Fund had an average daily statistical correlation of over 0.99 to the daily performance of the Index. For the same period, the Index had a total return of -0.55% and a volatility of 24.19%. The index performance was driven by small caps lagging during a period of mega cap outperformance.

Primary factors affecting Fund performance include the total return of the securities and derivatives held by the Fund, the performance of the reference assets to which the derivatives are linked, financing rates paid or earned, the types of derivative contracts used (and their correlation to the Fund's Index), expenses, transaction costs, the volatility of the Fund's Index, and other miscellaneous factors.
