How did the Fund perform last year?

UltraShort Nasdaq-100 ProFund (the "Fund") seeks daily investment results, before fees and expenses, that correspond to two times the inverse (-2x) of the daily performance of the Nasdaq-100® Index (the "Index").

The Fund invests in financial instruments that ProFund Advisors believes, in combination, should produce daily returns consistent with the Fund's investment objective.

For the year ended July 31, 2025, the Fund had an average daily statistical correlation of over 0.99 to twice the inverse of the daily performance of the Index. For the same period, the Index had a total return of 20.83% and a volatility of 24.66%. The index performance was driven by strength in technology stocks and the rising demand of AI.

Primary factors affecting Fund performance include the total return of the derivatives held by the Fund, the performance of the reference assets to which the derivatives are linked, financing rates paid or earned, the types of derivative contracts used (and their correlation to the Index), expenses, transaction costs, the volatility of the Fund's Index, the impact of compounding, and other miscellaneous factors.
