How did the Fund perform last year?

Short Precious Metals ProFund (the "Fund") seeks daily investment results, before fees and expenses, that correspond to the inverse (-1x) of the daily performance of the Dow Jones Precious MetalsSM Index (the "Index").

The Fund invests in financial instruments that ProFund Advisors believes, in combination, should produce daily returns consistent with the Fund's investment objective.

For the year ended July 31, 2025, the Fund had an average daily statistical correlation of over 0.99 to the inverse of the daily performance of the Index. For the same period, the Index had a total return of 39.61% and a volatility of 34.12%. The index performance was driven by rising gold, platinum, and silver prices.

Primary factors affecting Fund performance include the total return of the derivatives held by the Fund, the performance of the reference assets to which the derivatives are linked, financing rates paid or earned, the types of derivative contracts used (and their correlation to the Index), expenses, transaction costs, the volatility of the Fund's Index, the impact of compounding, and other miscellaneous factors.
